Directions

From Taunton the best approach is via Bishops Lydeard, Raleigh's Cross (ensuring that you fork right half a mile after Raleigh's Cross), across Wheddon Cross, and through Exford to Simonsbath.

In Simonsbath take the second left (signposted Barnstable, Ilfracombe and Challacombe), onto the road that follows the valley. After about a mile you begin to climb, then the road flattens out and descends again.

After a second flat section you reach a sharp left-hand bend. A wooden gate on the right of the road gives access to our drive. Just inside the gate a sign says 'Pinkery Outdoor Education Centre'. Ignore the signs that say 'No Vehicles' and drive up to the Centre.

If you reach the Devon County Boundary you have gone 300m too far.
If you reach Challacombe you've gone far too far!

From the South or West reach the South Molton – Combe Martin - Ilfracombe road and take the turning eastward that's a mile south of Blackmoor Gate. This road is signposted to Simonsbath.

After about 3 miles you pass through the village of Challacombe and the road begins to climb. Once it reaches the moor it flattens and, after crossing into Somerset, descends fairly steeply.

At the bottom of that descent is a sharp right-hand bend, on the left, is a wooden gate to Pinkery drive. Just inside the gate a sign says 'Pinkery Outdoor Education Centre'. Ignore the signs that say 'No Vehicles' and drive up to the Centre.
