

Role Title: Museum Steward - West Somerset Rural Life Museum, Allerford

Main Activity:

Help provide a friendly welcome to visitors at the West Somerset Rural Life Museum.

The museum is located in the old school rooms in the picturesque village of Allerford and is run by a team of volunteers. The museum's exhibitions transport visitors back through time, with a wide variety of objects on display in themed areas, covering a broad range of rural social history.

Our stewards play an important role in engaging with visitors, helping them navigate their way around the museum, ensuring they get the most out of their visit.

The museum also welcomes school visits, so if you have experience of working alongside school groups please let us know.

Website: Allerford Museum - the home of The West Somerset Rural Life Museum

Location:

Allerford Museum, nr Porlock, Minehead

Time Commitment:

The museum is open April through till October, Monday – Friday 10:30am – 4pm & Bank Holidays 1:30pm – 4:30pm

We would welcome help on any of these days. Normal shifts are 3hrs, either morning or afternoon but these can be flexible to suit.

Duration:

Ongoing

Skills/Ability needed:

Great customer service skills

Good communication skills

Pasion for the past

Knowledge of the local area

Enjoy helping as part of a friendly team

What you need to bring:

Just your enthusiasm and yourself

What's in it for you:

This is an ideal opportunity to learn more about heritage interpretation and to help engage with people about West Somerset's past as part of a friendly team.

Share your passion and enthusiasm for history.

No experience necessary, training & support provided.

Further info/contact:

Mike Bainbridge, Tel: 01643 862529 or 01643 708455