

Be An Exmoor Park Protector

Our National Park needs your help!

We love having so many visitors enjoy our National Park, but more visitors can sometimes mean more mess. An act of kindness can go a long way to help our Park and our own wellbeing.

Complete 8 of these 12 tasks, get them signed off by a grown up, and head to one of our National Park Centres to claim your Park Protector Certificate along with your very own free Exmoor National Park stationery set (while stocks last)

Litter Pick-up	Hug A Tree	Plastic-free Picnic	Mindful Moment
On your visit if you see some litter, pick it up and dispose of it correctly. Even better, head out with some gloves and a rubbish bag and go on a litter search. Always wash your hands afterwards.  Signature of completion	Trees need love as well! Did you know, England's tallest tree is growing on Exmoor, if you visit Nutcombe Bottom, be sure to look (up) for it.  Signature of completion	Try and pack a no single use plastic picnic to take with you on your adventure. Did you know that Exmoor is working hard to earn its Exmoor Plastic Free Award, help us out by bringing and using less.  Signature of completion	Get comfy and take a break, use all your senses to look, listen, feel and smell your surroundings. Do this in as many different places as you can. Maybe you'll fall in love with the sound of a stream, the smell of the ocean or the softness of the moss on a tree.  Signature of completion
Eye Spy Try and increase your nature knowledge by downloading the iNaturalist app, looking in a book or online, to identify a new creature, tree, flower, or plant that you don't know the name of.  Signature of completion	Visit a National Park Centre We have three National Park Centres open for visitors (see page 2) Pop along to one of them to meet our friendly staff, do an activity and pick up some free habitat posters and leaflets.  Signature of completion	Get your feet wet Paddle in a stream or rockpool and see what kind of creatures live under the rocks. Don't forget to be gentle when moving anything, they might be someone's home! Be water safe and check the tides.  Signature of completion	Make a pebble tower Challenge yourself and build a tower as high as you can. Don't forget to put them back when you are done.  Signature of completion
Recycle While putting your rubbish in a bin is great, taking your litter home to correctly recycle is even better!  Signature of completion	Reach New Heights Take a walk to the top of a hill. You will be rewarded with panoramic views of our amazing National Park.  Signature of completion	Bug Hotel Using debris and natural items you can find around you, build a warm and safe home for a small creature.  Signature of completion	Turn your lights off Turn your lights off at night to see just how many stars are out there. Exmoor is Europe's first Dark Sky Reserve for a reason.  Signature of completion

Make your visit to Exmoor National Park count, leave no trace, and take only memories.
