

The Horner Wood Story

EXMOOR

NATIONAL PARK

Horner Wood is an outdoor area with oak woodlands

This means it is a place where I can spend time in the countryside

When I arrive to visit Horner Wood

I might see:

The car park

An information board

Toilets

A café

When I visit Horner Woods

I might see:

A farm called
Horner Farm

A picnic bench

An old mill

The National Trust Horner
Wood sign

When I visit Horner Woods

I might see:

Trees

A sign with information about the special trees

Cottages

A bridge over the river – this is called a packhorse bridge

When I visit Horner Woods

I might hear:

Chickens

Birds

The water in the river

The wind blowing
through the trees

When I visit Horner Woods

I might touch or feel:

Rough bark on trees or logs

Leaves which fallen from the trees onto the ground

Soft moss

Cobblestones on the bridge

When I visit Horner Woods

I might taste:

Ice cream from the café

Food that we have taken with us

Blackberries

When I visit Horner Woods

I might smell:

The animals on the farm

Blossom in the orchard

Damp leaves

Flowers

Most of all Horner Woods is a place where I can enjoy time outdoors

Some additional information for my visit

- This Sensory Story starts from the National Trust pay and display car park just off the road from Luccombe to West Luccombe TA24 8HY
- This car park has public toilets
- There is a farm shop at Horner Farm and tea rooms nearby which are open in season
